Buffalo Basin
Visitor Information, Summer 2022
Thank You for Visiting Us!

Are there any rules or best practices regarding tying up at the docks?

- At the finger docks, you should tie up to the metal poles or framework. On the main dock, tie up to the metal framework underneath the dock-not to the water pipes. Use of rubber “snubbers” on your lines is recommended to ease the strain on the finger docks during heavy weather. If the slip next to you is empty, you should run a line from your stern to the metal pole at the end of the finger dock across from you to keep the docks stable in case of heavy weather.

Alcohol Consumption

- In the spirit of collegiality, good fellowship, and to promote general safety, each member is responsible to control their personal and their guests’ consumption of alcohol in and around each basin, and to monitor other members in that same regard.

Garbage and Waste Disposal

- Slip areas are to be kept clear of refuse and surplus gear.
- No loose or bagged garbage is to be deposited by any means in the slip space. All garbage is to be taken to the provided containers.
